

Women in Transport Summit

The Department of Transport in collaboration with South African Network for Women in Transport and Transport entities hosted a three days Women in Transport Summit at Birchwood Hotel and Conference centre in Kempton Park. The Summit was graced by the presence of the Minister of Transport Hon. Dipuo Peters, the Deputy Minister of Transport Hon. Sindisiwe Chikunga, Minister of Women and Children, Mme Susan Shabangu, Director General of the Department of Transport Mr Pule Selepe, MEC of Free State Police, Roads and Transport Hon. Butana Khompela, Board members of Transport entities, CEO's of state owned entities, Leadership of SANWIT, Director Generals from the Department, amongst other Dignitaries.

In attendance were also stakeholders, entrepreneurs, Non Profit Organisations and the transport sector at large. The Summit will take place under the theme: “Transport Sector, Moving Women Empowerment and Transformation Forward”. The aim of the Summit is to empower women in the Transport sector and create conducive environment for them. The delegates will deliberate and engage on women empowerment opportunities in the various modes of transport: rail, roads, aviation, maritime and public transport.

The Corporation was represented by several women from different functional units who participated in the plenary and commissions. The CEO of the Corporation also participated in the plenary and commissions. The Corporation also participated in exhibitions to promote road safety at the Summit.

