Taxi driver detained for reckless driving

A 30 year old taxi driver has been arrested in Midrand for driving a fully loaded taxi recklessly placing the lives of his passengers at risk.

Members of the National Traffic Anti-Corruption Unit stopped the driver after observing him driving through a red traffic light without stopping.

The suspect also drove without a valid Professional Driver's Permit and the minibus was un-roadworthy.

The vehicle was immediately discontinued from further use and the suspect was arrested and detained at the Midrand police station.

The suspect is expected to appear in court tomorrow for a bail hearing.
