RECRUITMENT OF RTMC TRAFFIC TRAINEES TO RESUME IN GAUTENG

GAUTENG- The recruitment process of the RTMC Traffic Trainees is set to resume in Gauteng following a brief halt a week ago.

Qualifying applicants, who had not been assessed when the process was halted will soon receive SMS notifications advising them on the date and venue where they should present themselves for further assessments.

Applicants will be invited to come on different days to ensure the process is orderly. Stringent measures will also be put in place to certify that only applicants with genuine invitations gain access to the centres. Uninvited applicants will be barred from accessing the centres.

Those who have previously submitted medical certificates need not bring new certificates.

Assessments conducted in other provinces remain valid, successful applicants will soon be informed of the outcome.
