NEW DRIVING LICENCE CENTRES START OPERATING IN GAUTENG

Gauteng -: October is Transport Month. To alleviate the public's frustration with the renewal of driving licences, the Minister of Transport, Fikile Mbalula will on Thursday, 07 October 2021 officially open two driving licence centers in Gauteng.

The initiative is part of efforts to improve efficiency and reduce the backlog in expired licences caused by the imposition of Covid-19 lockdown restrictions.

The two centers at Road Traffic Management Corporation (RTMC) premises at Eco-Park, Centurion and Waterfall Office Park in Midrand will allow the public to renew driving licences, professional driving permits and conversion of foreign driving licences.

The centers will usher a new era of digitalization in the traffic management sector where long queues will be eliminated.

The event will be attended by captains of industry from among others the motor manufacturing, short-term insurance and car hire sectors.

Details of the event are as follows:
