TRAFFIC OFFICER ARRESTED FOR BRIBERY

PRETORIA -: A 45-year old traffic officer will be spending the Easter long weekend behind bars after being arrested on R28 in Randfontein on allegation of bribery.

The officer, who is employed by the Randfontein local municipality, was operating a speed camera when he stopped officers who were on an undercover anti-corruption sting operation.

The traffic officer allegedly demanded a R200 bribe before he was arrested by a joint team of under-cover officers from the Road Traffic Management Corporation's national traffic anti-corruption unit, the Gauteng SAPS anti-corruption unit and members from the Independent Police Investigative Unit.

He is detained at Randfontein Police station until his court appearance on Tuesday.
