RTMC READY TO ASSIST MOTORIST AFFECTED BY DISRUPTION OF SERVICES AT CENTURION DLTC

PRETORIA -: The Road Traffic Management Corporation wishes to alert the public about the disruption of services at Centurion driving licence testing centre where 35 computers were allegedly stolen last night (Wednesday).

The RTMC places on record that despite this unfortunate situation the neighbouring DLTC's such as Akasia, Wartloo, Rayton and Eco Park are on standby to assist motorists who need to renew driving licences including the Waterfall office premises. Walk-ins will be allowed to minimize inconvenience to members of the public. The Eco=Park and Waterfall operates from 7am to 9pm daily including Saturday and Sunday.

The RTMC would like to assure members of the public that the theft of computers will not compromise personal information that they provided to the Centurion driving licence centre. All information is stored at the central point on the other than the computers and in compliance with the legislative imperatives nothing is stored on the computers.

Centurion licensing centre will continue to provide the following services:

Board of Directors: Mr Z Majavu CD(SA) (Chairman), Ms T Mdlulwa, Mr T Kgomo, Prof. M Mphahlele, Ms T Thankge, Dr E Thebe, Adv. J Makgatho*
Chief Executive Officer: Advocate MS Msibi
Company Secretary: Ms S Petse
Departmental Representative*

- Application and testing of learner licences.
- Application and testing of driving licences.

Motorists are advised to use the following centres for the registration and licensing of motor vehicles:

- Watloo
- Rayton
- Akasia and
- Bronkhorstspuit

Law enforcement agencies are hard at work to pursue the perpetrators of this criminal act and will leave no stone unturned.

The RTMC would like to assure all members of the Public that service delivery is our priority and our staff will go beyond the call of duty to serve.

The RTMC will work with the Centurion licensing department to ensure that services are restored as soon as possible.
