RTMC LAUNCHES PARTNERSHIP WITH WEBUYCARS

The Honourable Minister of Transport, Sindisiwe Chikunga will launch a groundbreaking public private partnership intended to improve vehicle registration and change of ownership.

The new solution will usher in a secure, paperless, business to business environment to allow the motor vehicle trading and financing sector to transact seamlessly on the Natis system.

The Road Traffic Management Corporation has piloted the solution with WeBuyCars and is now ready for full implementations.

This partnership is a first of its kind and the RTMC intends it to be the first of many as it continues to seek solutions to make transacting on the Natis system seamless for both members of the public and business stakeholders.

During this launch the Minister will share the progress made with the enhancement of online services as well as additional services that will be offered to WeBuyCars and future business partners.
